

6 September 1983

NOTE FOR: EA/Executive Director

I am somewhat confused by your comments. The DDS&T did see this before I got it. The normal procedure for all IG reports is that after the report is written, it is given to the component through the Deputy Director for both their comments. I am appalled that many of the Deputy Directors do not comment at all but I will fix that later.

Thought you should understand since you're commenting on how the procedure works.

John N. McMahon